South Carleton HS

13.73 KM away

Public

3673 McBean St, Richmond, ON K0A 2Z0, Canada

At South Carleton High School, we take pride in knowing that our school is recognized as a caring, community school. Our team of students, staff, parents and community promotes an inclusive and welcoming environment. We respect the individual, honour our traditions, encourage daily excellence, and prepare students for their future. Our learning environment is grounded in a strong academic program. Excellent core programs in language, social science, math, science and technology, coupled with extensive program choices in the fine arts, physical and outdoor education, and business studies create a comprehensive learning environment for our students. A major focus is in the preparation of students for post-secondary study and the world of work; thus, the development of superior numeracy and literacy skills is an emphasis throughout our program. Our co-operative education program provides many of our students the opportunities to experience real-life workplace learning that supports their academic program.

5870 Abbott St E, Stittsville, ON K2S 1X4, Canada

Recognizing the talents and contributions of every person within our community, and with abundant respect for all life, Sacred Heart Catholic High School strives to nurture Christian gospel values, along with our partners at home and in our parishes. Following the example of Jesus Christ, we strive to demonstrate how our faith leads us to do good works, how wisdom teaches us to love our neighbour, and how our purpose of preparing our young people to be stewards of the earth guides our actions. Faithful to the gospel, we are people of prayer, in a community of learners, who create a place of welcome and who seek to provide for those in need.
